

An Interview with our Anti-Bullying Ambassadors

What is the role of our Anti-Bullying Ambassadors?

- To promote kindness
- To make sure people aren't left out.
- To help others and be to a listening ear.
- To make sure everyone has a friend and has an enjoyable lunchtime.

What is bullying?

- Bullying is somebody consistently picking on you for no reason and making you feel alone.
- Bullying could involve repeated name calling, making someone feel bad about themselves, children saying unkind things, repeated physical violence against another child.
- Cyber bullying - online bullying – mentally hurting someone, name calling, taking or posting pictures/videos without permission.

Do we have bullying at Shiremoor Primary School?

All children - No

Why do we not have bullying at Shiremoor Primary School?

- It's rude.
- We don't allow it.
- We have anti-bullying ambassadors to support us.
- Teachers and lunchtime supervisors don't allow it.
- If there is a problem or an incident at our school, adults get to the bottom of the problem and stop it or sort out before it ever becomes bullying.
- Children feel comfortable asking teachers for help, support or advice.