Friday 19th December - Special visitor am (All children welcome to wear Christmas jumpers, Pyjamas or Christmas costumes).

Friday 19th December pm - Class parties (If you can donate a little food for the party please can boys bring sweet items and girls savoury please for ease. Please keep things nut free).

In addition, we will be having another special attendance award. This will be based on this half-terms attendance being 96% so will not be affected by days missed last half-term. We loved our visit to the Adventure Playground and will be making another one next term but this award will be a little different so that we can have repeated opportunities plus fun new ones. We will also be giving out £10 Amazon Vouchers for 3 100% attenders drawn from a hat.

A lot to look forward to. I will be adding to these dates with a special invitation to some parents but need to firm up that surprise first.

Many thanks,

Mrs Middleton
